

Doing Life Differently: The Art of Living with Imagination

Adventure is an attitude, says author and Women of Faith speaker Luci Swindoll, not a behavior. In this inspiring account of her courageous life, she shows readers what happens when we stop asking if only and why me? and start asking what if? and why not? It teaches how to live savoring each moment and how to let go of regrets and embrace dreams instead. Doing Life Differently is not a pie-in-the-sky book that sidesteps the real issues of life. Instead, the zest in its pages helps readers find the life of adventure that is within the very life they are living. A jolt of energy and a blast of fresh air, Luci Swindoll manages to reach every reader where she is and help her envision a life through the lens of possibility.
